COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1916.

NUMBER 12

ELECTION IN THE NATION IN DOUBT.

Definite Information Not Received, But Reports Received Here Last Night Give New York, Indiana, Illinois and Ohio to Hughes.

IT IS ALSO CLAIMED THAT BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS ARE REPUBLICAN.

A Courier-Journal message received here this morning at 4 o'clock concedes Mr. Hughes election. The big States, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois are all claimed for the Republican candidate.

We had hoped to be able to give a definite statement in The News today, showing the vote each candidate will receive in the electoral college, but some States are so close, claimed by both sides, make it impossible for us to do so.

The Courier-Journal last night estimated the Democratic majority in Kentucky at 13,000, and elected ten Congressmen out of eleven. Caleb Powers is returned from the Eleventh.

The Republican majority in Adair county, in the Presidential contest, is not so large as was expected. It was generally believed that Mr. Hughes would carry it by 350 or 400, but he only received 193 to the good. Mr. Neat, the local Republican candidate for Congress, in the Eighth district, carried the county by 384 majority.

Russell, Cumberland, Green, Metcalfe, Clinton, Casey, all give large Republican majorities. Taylor gave Wilson less than 30 majority.

It is impossible, with the information before us, to give anything like a correct vote, but the result is in accord with the statement made above.

Next week we will publish a table of Adair's vote, showing how each precinct went.

LATER.

A Western Union telegram says: Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, California, Nebraska, Kansas, North Dakota, Delaware, Maryland, Utah, New Mexico, certain for Wilson. Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Montana, Minnesota, Indiana, all close. Wilson wins if he carries West Va., Kansas, Massachusetts, or enough Western States in doubt, to equal the electoral vote of these three states.

A telegram from the Louisville Post at 8:30 this morning says that the Wilson forces have not given up the election, and that Hughes has not been elected by a whole lot.

H. N. Miller talked to the Louisville Post at 9 o'clock a. m., and that paper said that Wilson had been elected.

Guerrant---Wood.

The wedding of Miss Mary Garnett Wood to Mr. Richard Putney Guerrant was solemnized at 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's father and mother, on Lexington avenue. The house was most attractively decorated in autumn leaves, yellow chrysanthemums, and potted ferns, and was lighted throughout by candles with yellow shades. The color scheme was carried out in the delicious salad course which was served to the wedding guests.

The bride attired in a beautiful dress of white georgette crepe, embroidered in pearls over chrysanthemums, wearing a veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses, looked very girlish and lovely. She and her father were preceded by the matron of honor, Mrs. Raymond Grant, of Louisville, and were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. Barnett Guerrant. The matron of honor wore a very handsome dress of embroidered net, and satin, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The ceremony was short and impressive, and was performed by the Rev. Dr. Green, pastor of the bride and groom. After the ceremony a shower of congratulations and good wishes was bestowed upon the happy young couple, and upon their departure there followed a shower of rice from the nine little girls, members of the bride's Sunday School class. There were about seventy-five guests; the out of town guests being Mrs. Raymond Grant, of Louisville; Miss Jennie Garnett, of Columbia; Mrs. Durst, from Lexington; Mrs. Hutchison, Miss Lucile Hutchison, Mrs. Jeff, Miss Alice Gay Jeff, of Nicholasville; Misses Green, Mrs. James Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders, of Perryville; Mrs. Lee Rupley, of Stanford. The numerous and handsome gifts of silver, cut glass, china, linen etc., displayed in the library, were testimonials of the love and good wishes of their many friends.—The Danville Messenger.

Dr. B. T. Wood, the father of the bride, was a popular physician of Columbia for a number of years, and is yet very kindly remembered here. The bride is a first cousin of Miss Jennie Garnett, of this place, Mrs. J. P. Scruggs, of Fredericktown, Mo., and former Attorney General Jas. Garnett, of Louisville. The bride has many friends, all of whom extend their best wishes.

Oyster Supper.

Saturday night, Nov. 11th, there will be a big oyster supper at Cane Valley, at the Band Hall. Everybody invited. Good music by the band.

If you are not a subscriber for the Pictorial Review, you should send for it at once. The November number is of special interest, filled with choice matter by the best of writers. The illustrations are very attractive and suggestive. No family should do without this valuable periodical. Address the Pictorial Review, 216-226, West 39th St., New York.

The Revival.

The series of meetings which commenced at the Baptist church last Tuesday night, is being largely attended at the evening services, and in the morning the attendance is fairly good. The day services are of special interest, and the church should be filled at each gathering.

Rev. J. B. DeGarmo, an evangelist of Mississippi, who is assisting Pastor Bush, is a strong theologian and is delivering touching and very inspiring discourses. He has been very successful at other places in winning souls to Christ, and we predict that his labors will not be in vain.

The song service is led by Mr. Frank E. McCravy, of South Carolina, who travels with Rev. DeGarmo. A splendid choir has been organized, and late revival songs are being used. Mrs. G. R. Reed is the organist and Miss Alice Walker, pianist. The solos that are being rendered by Mr. McCravy are beautifully worded and sung very melodiously.

The meeting will continue all this week and into next week, and the people generally are cordially invited.

Editor News:—

I enclose you a money order for $1 for my subscription to the News for 1916. I delayed sending it, thinking I would go back to Louisville to live, and not change my address so often, but continue to send it to Versailles. Mr. Hatcher has a nice position in Louisville with the water company. I will go back soon, but must not miss my weekly visitor—The News. Carrie and Price are located here, and are delighted with the people. He is general agent for the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company for this whole territory.

Wishing you success, and a wide circulation for the News, even at a high cost of paper.

Sincerely,
Mrs. R. L. Hatcher.

The property close to the square, on Burkesville street, where Mr. W. H. Wilson resides, was sold by special commissioner, W. T. Price, last Monday. It was bought by W. H. Irvine, of Russell Springs, for $2,610. It is our information that J. D. Irvine, Creelsboro, was a partner of W. H. Irvine in the bid.

Opened front Franklin Stove, in good condition for sale. Cheap.
W. A. Coffey.

Monday was county court and a large crowd was in town. The afternoon was taken up by speakers of both political parties. During the day the merchants and other business men had a fine run of trade.

Good Reading.

Dr. J. T. Jones will send his book of 90 pieces in Prose and Verse, by mail, to anyone sending him a Postal Money Order for 25 cents to Glensfork, Ky. They are on sale at The News office also.

Born, to the wife of Ed Rule, Garlin, Nov. 6, 1916, a daughter.

SKETCHES.

J. W. Shaw.

The above is the name of a traveling man who has been visiting the merchants of Columbia and those located out in the county of Adair for about eighteen or twenty years. The entire time he has been on the road, is not known to us.

He represents Burroughs & Taylor, manufacturers of pants and woolen goods, who are located at Cave, Tenn. There is not a more polished gentleman, nor one who has more friends, who visits the merchants of Adair county. He reaches here three times a year and his trips are universally satisfactory to him, nearly every customer giving him an order. He handles very popular brands which he presents and sell on their merit. When Mr. Shaw reaches Columbia the whole community knows of his arrival. He is over six feet tall, straight as an Indian, and one of the most evenly proportioned men we ever had the pleasure of meeting. His manners are faultless, an easy and entertaining conversationalist, making him not only popular with the merchants, but with the entire community.

Mr. Shaw has an attractive home in Nashville, Tenn., a devoted companion and one child, a daughter, who is married, and his incomings, after being out on a long trip, is hailed with delight. Notwithstanding he is strong in mind, determined in his purposes, no woman has a tenderer heart, nor one that goes out more freely for those in distress.

We trust that he will continue his visits to Columbia as long as he is able to travel, and when he finishes his work here below, and reaches the gate of St. Peter, he will hear the welcome plaudits: "Come in and sit at my right hand."

Death of Miss Mary D. Everman

Miss Mary D. Everman, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. John A. Gilkey, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital at ten o'clock Saturday morning, following a two-weeks' illness due to a complication of diseases.

Miss Everman was taken sick about two weeks ago and it was found that she was ill from an aggravated case of appendicitis. She was taken to the Massie Memorial Hospital suffering intense pain, where she underwent an operation with the hope of securing relief. The disease had progressed rapidly, however, and despite the efforts of her physicians, she grew steadily worse and passed away Saturday.

Miss Everman was an exceptionally attractive young woman and by her pleasing manner and sunny disposition had greatly endeared herself to her schoolmates at the Paris City School and with her acquaintances as well.

For the past week it had been known by the physicians in charge that Miss Everman could not recover, but the plucky young woman insisted that she would regain her health and she made a heroic fight against the grim reaper. However, a short time before she died, she realized the inevitable, and told her mother and other loved ones at her bedside, that she was going to die, and the most pathetic scene ever witnessed at the local hospital occurred when Miss Everman said farewell to her mother and others at her bedside, and she passed away singing, "Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown."

Miss Everman is survived by her mother, Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, of Paris, two brothers, James and Ellis Everman, of Corbin, and a half sister, Marian Fithian Everman and J. A. Gilkey, Jr., of Paris.

The funeral services were conducted at the home of Dr. Gilkey, on Second Street, Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, by Eld. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian Church, and the burial followed in the family lot at the North Middletown Cemetery.

The pall bearers, former schoolmates of the deceased, were: Herbert Sledd and Stoddard Young, of North Middletown, and Ethel Arkle, Vale Baldwin, John Clay, Stanley Price, Charles Tackett and Stanley Rule, of the Paris City School.—Paris, Ky., paper.

The deceased was well known and had many friends here, where she visited the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Patteson.

Wanted.

At Lindsey-Wilson Irish potatoes, $1.00 per bushel, cash.

Hon. Harvey Helm, Democratic candidate for re-election to Congress, made a number of telling speeches in the county last week, large crowds meeting him at each appointment.

Infant child of Rev. H. T. Jesse died near Rugby last week.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. Victoria Butler, the Beloved Wife of James Butler, Finishes Her Life Work.

FUNERAL SERVICES AT MT. PLEASANT.

Last Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, after a long illness, Mrs. Victoria Butler, the devoted wife of James Butler, surrounded by loved ones and friends, peacefully closed her eyes in death. She was a victim of a cancer, and all that human hands could do was done.

She was a daughter of James and Louisa Callison, and was born and reared in the neighborhood where she died. She was about sixty-three years old and had been a consistent member of the Christian church since early girlhood, and was ready to meet the God she worshipped.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Mt. Pleasant church, conducted by her pastor, Eld. Z. T. Williams, who paid a high tribute to her character, as wife, mother, and her devotion to the Christian religion. After the discourse the remains were conveyed to the Butler grave yard, on Joshi Butler's farm, where they were tenderly laid to rest. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Besides the husband, the deceased leaves two daughters, Mrs. Mont Conover and Mrs. Ed Hood, who are in the deepest sorrow. Her brother, Mr. W. J. Callison, of Middlesboro, was at her bedside several days before the sad end came. Also her brother, Mr. Bruce Callison, and sisters, Mrs. Horace Murrell and Mrs. T. T. Tupman. May God comfort and give them fortitude to bear the great loss, and some time, if they believe in the Great I Am, they will be made to understand why wife and mother was called to the Celestial home.

For Sale.

Twenty-eight acres of land, lying on the Columbia and Russell Springs road, at White Oak church. If interested write or call Calvin Acree, Denmark, Ky.

Married in Nashville.

Quite a number of invitations were received by friends here to the marriage of Miss Ethel Crockett to Mr. Henry F. Williams, which occurred at the bride's home, in the suburbs of Nashville, Tenn., Wednesday, October 25. The bride was at the head of the music department of the Lindsey-Wilson school two years, and she is very affectionately remembered here by her pupils and many friends, who extend to her and the companion of her choice their very best wishes.

100 Pairs Ladies Button and Lace Kid Shoes, assorted sizes, stylish shapes, worth $2.50 to $3.50 price to close out at $2 per pair.

2-2t Russell & Co.

The annual Adair county convention of the Christian church met at Milltown on Friday, October 26th. Some of those from out of the county who were on the program did not get to be present. Nevertheless it was the best county convention ever held. The people of Milltown were very hospitable and every one who attended enjoyed the days very much. The collections for Missions very especially good. Of the 17 churches in the county 9 sent in reports showing the following totals: Membership 929; value of church property, $10,650; paid for preaching, 1,213.25; Foreign Missions, $122.80; Home Missions, $50; Ministerial relief, 28.25; Orphan's Home, $21.73; Church extension, $25; State Bible School Work, $10. The next meeting will be held at Cane Valley, September 1917.

The Farmers' Mill Company, of this place, G. B. Smith, manager, are now running their mill by electricity, and it is doing fine work. They will start a corn mill in a few days, at their Russell Creek mill which will also be run by electricity.

Preston, a little son of Mrs. Lula Sinclair, met with an accident last Saturday night, and was badly hurt. He fell down the stairway, striking his head against the knob that held the door back, and cutting a severe gash over his left eye.

Mr. Finis Neal and Miss Fannie Williams, both of Eunice, were married in Jeffersonville, Ind., Oct. 27th. Both, though young, meritorious members of the best families, surprised the older ones and pledged their vows on the north banks of the Ohio. The News extends its best wishes for a happy, useful life and believing it will result.

Death of Samuel S. Feese.

The passing of the subject of this writing was not a surprise, as he had been rapidly declining for weeks before the final dissolution, his affliction being pulmonary trouble. He was born in Adair county, August 2, 1880, and died November 2, 1916, making him 36 years and three months old. He leaves a wife, two little daughters, father and one brother, and many other relatives. At about the age of fourteen years he professed his faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Church, and was attended in the last days of his illness by his pastor, Rev. L. F. Piercy, who officiated at the funeral, assisted by Eld. Z. T. Williams and Rev. O. P. Bush.

Though he knew that he could not get well, he expressed a desire to live, but said he was prepared to go. He was of a jovial disposition and was liked by every body.

Quite a number of friends were at the home and also the cemetery to pay their respects to the departed, and extend sympathy to the sorrowing wife and other relatives.

The deceased was an industrious young man. Three years ago he built a home for his little family, and enjoyed the hope of rearing his children and living happily with his companion, and was cut down in the prime of his manhood.

The community feels for the wife, who was Miss Grace Conover, and her little ones. May God comfort them in this sad hour of affliction.

When the grave was finished it was covered with beautiful, white flowers by his neighbors and many friends.

FOUND: An Odd Fellow pin. Call on J. C. Strange.

Mr. J. C. Sims, manufacturer of Granite and Marble Monuments and Tombstones, Lebanon, Ky., has been selling stones in Columbia and Adair county for a good many years. He does first-class work and his prices are very reasonable. He, or one of his representatives make Columbia every few weeks, and persons who expect to buy stones should see him and get his prices 2-4t.

When you buy shoes, be sure you get the best. Come to me for a pair of good solid leather shoes. The best for the price, no matter what the price may be.

Halloween Imps.

Last Tuesday evening Miss Cary Rosenfield and Miss Edna Lewis delightfully entertained the spooks, and they were present in large numbers. It was the most amusing gathering held in Columbia for many moons. Nearly all the young people of the community and many of the older set, married people, got ready for the occasion, and the amusement continued until a late hour. There were some who were arrayed uniquely, while others looked hideous. So perfect were the disguises of some that they were not recognized until after they removed their masks.

People who did not go to the home were given an opportunity to see a large number of the participants at the Paramount Picture show, as they attended this popular play house before going to the hill. Many say they laughed until their arms nearly fell from their shoulders. An occasion like this is better than medicine, for the low spirited can smile broadly, loudly and grow fat.

Last Sunday night week thieves attempted to enter the store of C. H. Jarvis & Co., Coburg, this county. They bored several holes in the back door, but evidently got frightened and took their departure. Blood hounds were ordered from Lebanon and immediately after they arrived, took the trail, following it for a mile and a half. Here they lost the trail, and at this time there is no clue.

The opening of the Greensburg Loose Leaf House has been changed from Oct. 30th, to Nov. the 9th.

Mr. G. W. Rubarts, of Eunice, fell from a ladder, last Thursday, and was seriously hurt. As we are informed he was assisting in building a storage house for his auto when the accident occurred. He was severely bruised and medical attention was necessary. At present he is recovering and baring complications, will soon be active in business and enthusiastic for the improvement of the Dug Hill road—the only serious barrier between Columbia and Liberty or Eunice and Columbia.

One of the cleanest, the most argumentative speeches heard in Columbia during the campaign, was delivered by Lieutenant Governor Jas. D. Black at the court-house last Saturday afternoon. The court-room was well-filled, many ladies being present, and at each mention of the name of Woodrow Wilson there was prolonged applause.

Mrs. Ernest Flowers, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Holladay, in Louisville, returned Saturday night. Her mother will be able to come home in about two weeks.

Mr. W. E. Faulkerberg, Mr. J. D. Wooldridge and Mr. N. B. Faulkenberg were here from Jamestown last Thursday. The latter was on his return home from Texas.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. C. Bates, of Jamestown, were here Thursday, en route home from Louisville. Mrs. Bates visited the city to undergo an operation which proved successful.

Mrs. H. V. Denver arrived Tuesday from Lexington, Tenn., to be with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Marcum. Miss S. R. Marcum, another daughter, is expected from South Carolina, tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Rowe and their little daughter, Louise, went to Louisville last week. The latter underwent an operation for throat trouble and she is doing nicely, and will soon be well.

Mr. Joseph Dean and Mr. M. C. McClay, of near Harrodsburg, visited in Columbia last week, the former being a cousin of Mrs. Mary Caldwell and Mrs. Emily Burton and Mrs. S. A. Allen.

Mrs. Bert Epperson and two of her children arrived from Illinois a few days ago. Mr. Epperson and one son arrived later in an auto. It is said they will reside in Columbia. It is an excellent family.

Mr. Roy Mays passed through here last Tuesday en route to his home, at Hustonville, from Bowling Green, in an auto. He was accompanied from here by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pelley, who spent several days visiting relatives in Lincoln and Casey counties.

Mr. S. T. Hughes went to Louisville last Thursday, returning Friday with his wife, who had been in a sanatorium in that city for some time, recovering from an operation. Mrs. Hughes is feeling reasonably well and it is hoped that she will soon be restored to health.

A business man who has selling ability. The man we want may be in the automobile business now; he may be in some other business; he may be a farmer; he may be retired.Whoever he is or whatever may be his occupation, we want him if he can fulfill the conditions of our proposal.We are in search of a real, live, wide-awake man, who has had business training, who has some capital, who can sell Maxwell Motor Cars.We are represented in almost 3000 of the leading cities and towns of the United States, and our dealers are prosperous and happy.They should be, and will continue to be, for the Maxwell Car is the unquestioned leader of its class.It is a car for which there is a nation-wide and growing demand —because it represents more real value, dollar for dollar, than any other car in the world.We have no dealer in this locality. We want one immediately.

Which Do You Prefer?

It is important for reasons of health and practical economy for every housekeeper to ask herself this question:

"Do I prefer a pure baking powder like Royal, made of cream of tartar derived from grapes, or am I willing to use a baking powder made of alum or phosphate, both derived from mineral sources?"

The names of the ingredients printed on the label show whether the kind you are now using or any brand, new or old, that may be offered is a genuine cream of tartar powder, or merely a phosphate or alum compound.

Royal Baking Powder contains no alum nor phosphate.

Keeping Yourself Well

HOW YOU GET SICK

Sometimes you overload your stomach with rich foods. Your life may be an active one, and that you may care for all you eat. But a few days of inactivity slow your system down and you feel the effects. You wake in the morning tired. Your body feels heavy. You know you are not up to the mark. Your digestion has not been for some time. Part of it is because it generates gas that builds up the delicate lining. They tend to push out the digestive juices, and select to absorb the life-giving elements. You know something is wrong.

Your body gets weak, and soon opportunity is offered for some severe illness.

Taken in time, the indigestion would not become serious. It removes the overload, then soothes the sore membranes; then builds up the weakened body. It's simple to say, but not too easy to do. You need help.

A tonic that will quicken digestion, help remove waste, soothe the soreness and arouse the system—that's just what you need.

Peruna has an enviable record in this respect. It has aided many thousands in the last century to overcome just these conditions, and thereby prevent serious sickness. The tablets are convenient for regular administration.

Manallin Tablets are the ideal laxative and liver tonic. They have no unpleasant effects and form no habits. 10c and 25c. The Peruna Co. Columbus, O.

NEW ILLS COME WITH PROSPERITY

Nervous Indigestion Alarmingly Prevalent Everywhere.

DUE TO BREAK-NECK LIVING

Tanlac Health Expert Describes Symptoms of Rapidly Spreading Malady and Explains New Treatment Which is Having Wonderful Success Wherever Introduced.

Nervous indigestion, due to the modern break-neck speed of living, has become alarmingly prevalent everywhere.

This statement by the Tanlac health expert has created much comment. He continued:

"I have never seen a time when there seemed to be so many cases of nervous indigestion among men and women in all walks of life.

Here Are Symptoms.

"The symptoms are extreme irritability, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, and an almost unquenchable restlessness. Everything the victim eats disagrees with him. There the pains in the abdomen and palpitation of the heart. Such cases are usually accompanied by constipation.

"I attribute the prevalence of this trouble to the fast pace at which both men and women are forcing themselves to live. Everybody is engaged in a wild scramble for wealth during this high tide of prosperity.

"The will power can drive the human machine just so far, but there is a limit. The health breaks down all at once and the victim is miserable and unhappy—just half sick. Life loses all its zest.

How Tanlac Helps.

"I have had hundreds of people call on me describing just such symptoms. They try Tanlac, and in a week or so most of them tell me that it is helping them to get on their feet again." Tanlac was specially designed to relieve conditions resulting from nervous indigestion and kindred complaints. Everywhere it has been introduced it has had wonderful success."

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. Forget your Aches.

Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Cleaner and more effective than musky ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments resulting from strenuous exercise Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. At Paul Drug Co. 25c Adv.

Died, at his home, on the 9th of October, Mr. John Rose, with a complication of diseases. He was 73 years of age. He had been a member of the Baptist church for a long time and had lived up to what he professed. He often rejoiced and talked about heaven and that he would soon be with loved ones and Jesus. He leaves four sons and one daughter to mourn their loss. Rev. Scott preached his funeral at Big Creek church. After the funeral his remains were carried to Union and laid to rest in the Union cemetery. Otis and John Rose left for Illinois. W. H. Rose will stay here to wind up the business then he will leave.

Her Son Subject to Croup.

"My son, Edwin, is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, of New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable at Paul Drug Co. Adv.

From Ohio.

Hamilton, Nov. 2, 1916.

C. S. Harris:

If you will allow me space in your paper, will take this method of writing to my friends. I have noticed lots of letters in your paper from Kentucky boys in Illinois and Missouri. I have been there and to Iowa and South Dakota. None are like here to me. Here you have no strangers. Act talk and behave like they do at home. I left Kentucky five weeks ago. I went to Dayton. Got there at 8:05 p. m. E. C. Page, former guard at the Kentucky State Reformatory was the first person I met. Went to work for the Standard Oil Co. Was in Dayton one week. Was sent here. Have been here 4 weeks. Am driving a tank wagon for the Standard Oil Co. I am in the country 5 days in the week. Work the city trade on Friday. Get through at noon. Have the balance of the day off. Don't understand me to say I get off every day at noon, only Friday. Some days I do not get in till 9 o'clock p. m. A very good job for a man that likes horses. Have to take care of our own teams. Hamilton is a city of 50,000, situated on the Miami river, 25 miles north of Cincinnati, 35 miles south of Dayton. We have in the city 3 different Oil Co.'s, Indians, Refiners and Standard. On my route I have those two companies to contend with and the White Star and the Moon Oil Co., of Cincinnati. All of the roads here are pikes. Lots of the pikes are vitrified brick. Some concrete, some limestone, the balance gravel. No mud to contend with. The farmers here are very progressive. Nearly every one owns an automobile. Quite a number have trucks, quite a number have tractors. Coal oil is worth 31c, gasoline 20 to the trade and 19c to dealers. Last Friday night, Jim Ed Moore and George Soda Page, of Cane Valley, Ky., arrived in this city, looking for a job. George Page stayed two nights, then went home to see his papa. Jim Ed beat him 4 days. He stayed till Friday morning. Said he got a letter from his girl near Cyclone school house, telling him to come back. As luck would have it, there was no frost, so they did not get bit. Am expecting my family here the 1st of December. Then I will be O. K. Things are very high here now. Flour is worth $11 per barrel, potatoes, $2.00 per bushel, fresh pork 20c per pound, sweet potatoes $2 to $2.50 per bushel, navy beans 15c per pound, Lima beans some higher, kidney beans 14c per pound. Everything in proportion. The Democrats of this town gave a free excursion to Dayton last night. A big Democratic rally up there. Over 1,500 men went.

Yours
C. Short Moore.

Editor News:—

Please allow me space for a few words. What I say may not be considered orthodox, but perhaps it will be later, as the heresay of to-day frequently becomes the orthodoxy of tomorrow.

When General Sherman said: "War is hell," I suppose most people thought it a joke, but in the light of recent developments, many are concluding it is a fact, and no joke. If we could draw the curtain aside and look into the unseen world, I don't think we could there find any thing so bad as what has been going on for more than two years, in so-called Christian Europe.

Speaking of the horrors of the European war, Lloyd George, England's Secretary of State for War, says: "I have just visited the battlefields of France. I stood as it were at the door of hell. I saw myriads marching into the furnace. I saw some coming out of it, scorched and mutilated."

This war is a vivid reminder of the fact that the wicked and the nations that forget God shall be turned into hell. And horrible as the thought is, it is consoling to know that our Heavenly Father has a wise and benevolent purpose in turning people over to Satan and into hell.

Paul directed that a certain one be turned over to Satan, not to be tortured through endless ages, but for the destruction of the flesh that the spirit might be saved. He commanded that others be turned over to Satan that they might learn not to blaspheme.

Perhaps the Lord has turned the nations of Europe over to Satan that they may learn war no more, and to beat their sword into plow shears and their spears into pruning hooks.

Let us hope and pray that they and all the other nations of the earth may learn the lesson so well that it shall never, never need to be learned again.
